

Press Release

Bhutanese Delegation Participates in 2026 IMF/WBG Annual Meetings in Bangkok, Thailand.

A delegation from Bhutan, led by the Hon'ble Finance Minister and the Governor of the Royal Monetary Authority of Bhutan, is in Bangkok, Thailand, to participate in the 2026 Annual Meetings of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank Group (WBG), scheduled for 12–18 October 2026.

The Annual Meetings bring together finance and development ministers, central bank governors, private sector representatives, academics, and development partners from around the world to discuss key global economic and financial issues. These include the global economic outlook, poverty reduction, sustainable development, international financial stability, and development financing. The programme also features high-level dialogues, seminars, regional briefings, and press conferences addressing emerging challenges and opportunities in the global economy.

During the meetings, the Bhutanese delegation will engage in high-level bilateral discussions with the senior leadership of the WBG, the IMF, and other development partners. These engagements will focus on advancing the Royal Government of Bhutan's development priorities, strengthening international partnerships, exploring opportunities to mobilize development and climate finance, and enhancing cooperation in support of Bhutan's long-term development agenda.

Through its participation, Bhutan seeks to reinforce its engagement with international financial institutions and development partners while reaffirming its commitment to sustainable, green, resilient, and inclusive economic growth.
